2. Role of Compliance Officer:

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”, pre-clearance to designated employees’ and their immediate relatives’ trades (directly or through respective department heads as decided by the Company), monitoring of trades and the implementation of the code of conduct under the overall supervision of the Board. In case there is no Company Secretary at any point of time, the Board of Directors shall appoint a senior level employee as Compliance Officer.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all the employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company’s code of conduct.

The compliance officer shall review the trading plan provided by the Insider in order to assess whether the plan would have potential for violation of the regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of plan.

The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors which shall not be less than once in a year.

3. Preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Directors/designated persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. They shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Chinese Walls

Chinese Walls are designed to operate as barriers to the passing of Inside Information and Confidential Information. Chinese Walls are also designed as a means of managing Conflicts of Interest.

Designated persons / employees working within an Organization either at Registered Office or Corporate Office or Branch office are prohibited from communicating any Confidential or Inside Information to employees in Public Areas without the prior approval of their local Compliance Officer.

Designated persons / employees within a Chinese Wall have a responsibility to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese wall must be referred to the Compliance Officer immediately.

Need to know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a “need to know” basis, i.e., Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty or legal obligations or legitimate purposes.

All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.

4. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Designated Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company and their immediate relatives shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) immediate relatives
- b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

Trading Plan:

An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure, as provided in the Regulations.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

However, the pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan and also the trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

5. Trading Window and Window closure

The Company specifies trading window as the period during which the Directors / officers / designated employees can trade in the Company’s Securities. The trading window shall be closed during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is not made public/generally available. When the trading window is closed, the designated employees/directors/designated persons shall not trade in the Company’s securities in such period.

In respect of declaration of financial results, the Trading Window shall remain closed for a period of at least 5 days in advance (excluding the date of the intimation and date of the meeting) on which the quarterly or annual financial results, as the case may be, are declared. As regards, other matters referred to in (b) to (e) of the unpublished price sensitive information the period of closure shall be at least 2 working days in advance, excluding the date of the intimation and date of the meeting. The Trading Window shall be opened 48 (Forty Eight) hours after the information referred to above is made public / generally available.

All directors/officers/designated employees/ persons of the Company and their dependants shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when trading window is closed, as referred to in above para or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

6. Pre-clearance of trades

All directors / officers / designated employees / designated persons of the Company and their immediate relatives who intend to deal in the securities of the Company above a threshold limit as mentioned below should pre-clear the transaction as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder.

Threshold limit shall mean: Transaction for purchase or sale of securities of the Company, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value/limit in excess of Rupees Ten Lakhs or such other value / limit as may be specified under the Regulations.

An application may be made in such form as the Company may notify in this regard, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the designated employee/person or officer/director intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this behalf.

A declaration shall be executed in favour of the Company by such designated persons/ employee/director/officer incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

- (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received or not in possession of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information" upto the time of signing the declaration.
- (b) That in case the employee / director / officer has access to or receives "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he / she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.

- (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
- (d) That he/she has made accurate, full and true disclosure in the matter.

7. Other restrictions

All directors/officers/designated employees and their dependants shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.

All directors / officers / designated employees who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not execute a contra trade or shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All directors/ officers/ designated employees / persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.

In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI and for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI. However, this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
